

I am a professional photographer based in Lebanon, I am so lucky to be born in Lebanon and I feel so grateful to live in this endlessly beautiful country. When I first discovered photography, I found my passion in a way I could express my ideas without the constraints of the spoken or written words. I am now able to use my photography to articulate myself through images. I have developed my abilities in aerial, portrait as well as landscape photography.

It was an honor to be chosen as a sole candidate to represent my country being a member of Al Jazeera Documentary Channel. I have been the proud owner of "Jarir", printing company for the last ten years. I have owned this enterprise since the year 2010. I opened this business which consisted of selling stationery and printing services.
